

Baltimore City Community College

For almost 75 years, Baltimore City Community College has been serving the Baltimore community and fueling the region's economic growth.

BCCC offers associate degree, certificate, and Workforce Training programs. At BCCC, you'll find affordable tuition and flexible class schedules.

We make it happen and you can too.

2901 Liberty Heights Avenue
Baltimore, MD 21215 - 7807
bccc.edu/msp

Mayor's Scholars Program Office
msp@bccc.edu

Attend college tuition-free

BCCC's free tuition will help you get there

Together, Baltimore City Community College and the City of Baltimore are making college affordable.

- > Enroll tuition-free* in any BCCC Associate Degree, Certificate, or eligible Workforce Training program.
- > Begin your college journey at BCCC through the Mayor's Scholars Program.
- > Get paid to attend college through partnerships with YouthWorks and CASA.

* Available for eligible students.

Program Eligibility

- > 2021 High School Graduate or GED recipient
- > No High School GPA requirement
- > Resident of Baltimore City
- > Attend a six-week MSP summer program

Apply today!

1.

Complete the BCCC application

at bccc.edu/apply.
Select the Mayor's Scholars Program under BCCC Special Programs

Application deadline is June 15, 2021

2.

Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) – use BCCC code 002061

or

Complete the Maryland State Financial Aid Application

3.

Earn money over the summer.

Stipends may be available through BCCC's partnerships with YouthWorks and CASA. Visit their websites below to complete the application.

- > <https://youthworks.oedworks.com>
- > <https://wearecasa.org>

Contact us at mssp@bccc.edu

Making college affordable

For more information visit bccc.edu/mssp