OVERVIEW

Baltimore City Community College (BCCC) is pleased to invite you to participate in The Promise Academy for the Spring 2013 semester. The mission of The Promise Academy is to prepare students for success in College through intense foundational courses, tutoring, advising and the creation of learning communities comprised of faculty, staff, tutors and advisors who are committed to the full development and support of students during their experience at BCCC.

The Promise Academy offers a one-time scholarship for students whose ACCUPLACER scores recommend placement into course MAT 80 (MAT 90) or ENG 80 (RENG 90). Scholarships are awarded for students who show commitment to pursuing higher education and who are interested in actively progressing through the academic program.

The Promise Academy also offers two Learning Communities, for students interested in the Nursing and Early Childhood Education program.

What is a Learning Community?
Learning Communities (LC) are student groups focused around classes, interest, programs or educational goals. As a member of a Learning Community, it enhances the college experience and enables students to form closer relationships with classmates and professors.

What are the Benefits?
- Supporting network of fellow students, peer educators, and professors
- Exposed to small community of peers with similar academic and career interests
- Learning Communities Activities
- Embedded Tutoring
- Study Sessions

APPLICANT REQUIREMENTS
To qualify for consideration of this scholarship award, all eligible applicants must:

- Complete the BCCC’s admissions process
- Complete the financial aid process
- Complete the AccuPlacer placement test
- Place into MAT 80 (MAT 80) or ENG 80 (RENG 90)
- Complete a Promise Academy Information Session
- Be available to register for the Spring 2013 Semester
